

God and Creation

When God uttered the words "Let there be light!" He did not create anything new. What he did was what artists and fathers and mothers do - He took something inside Himself and projected it into the external world, pouring His light into the container of created space.

Freema Gottlieb

The most beautiful thing we can experience is the mysterious. It is the source of all true art and science.

Albert Einstein

God's dream is ... to have mankind as a partner in the drama of continuous creation.

Abraham Heschel
